Jerry:

To a real nice guy
I met this year in
"Thrilling" World Cultures class
and through study halls.
Here's wishing you the best of luck in football and all your future attemp.
Love Bless ya!

Just.

Jerry,
To a real nice guy I met
in English & World Cultures. Remember
with the fun times
& take care Bender. Be good P.S. I hope you get the championship in football & I hope you beat Edhrata. I know you will.

Always,
Kathy D.

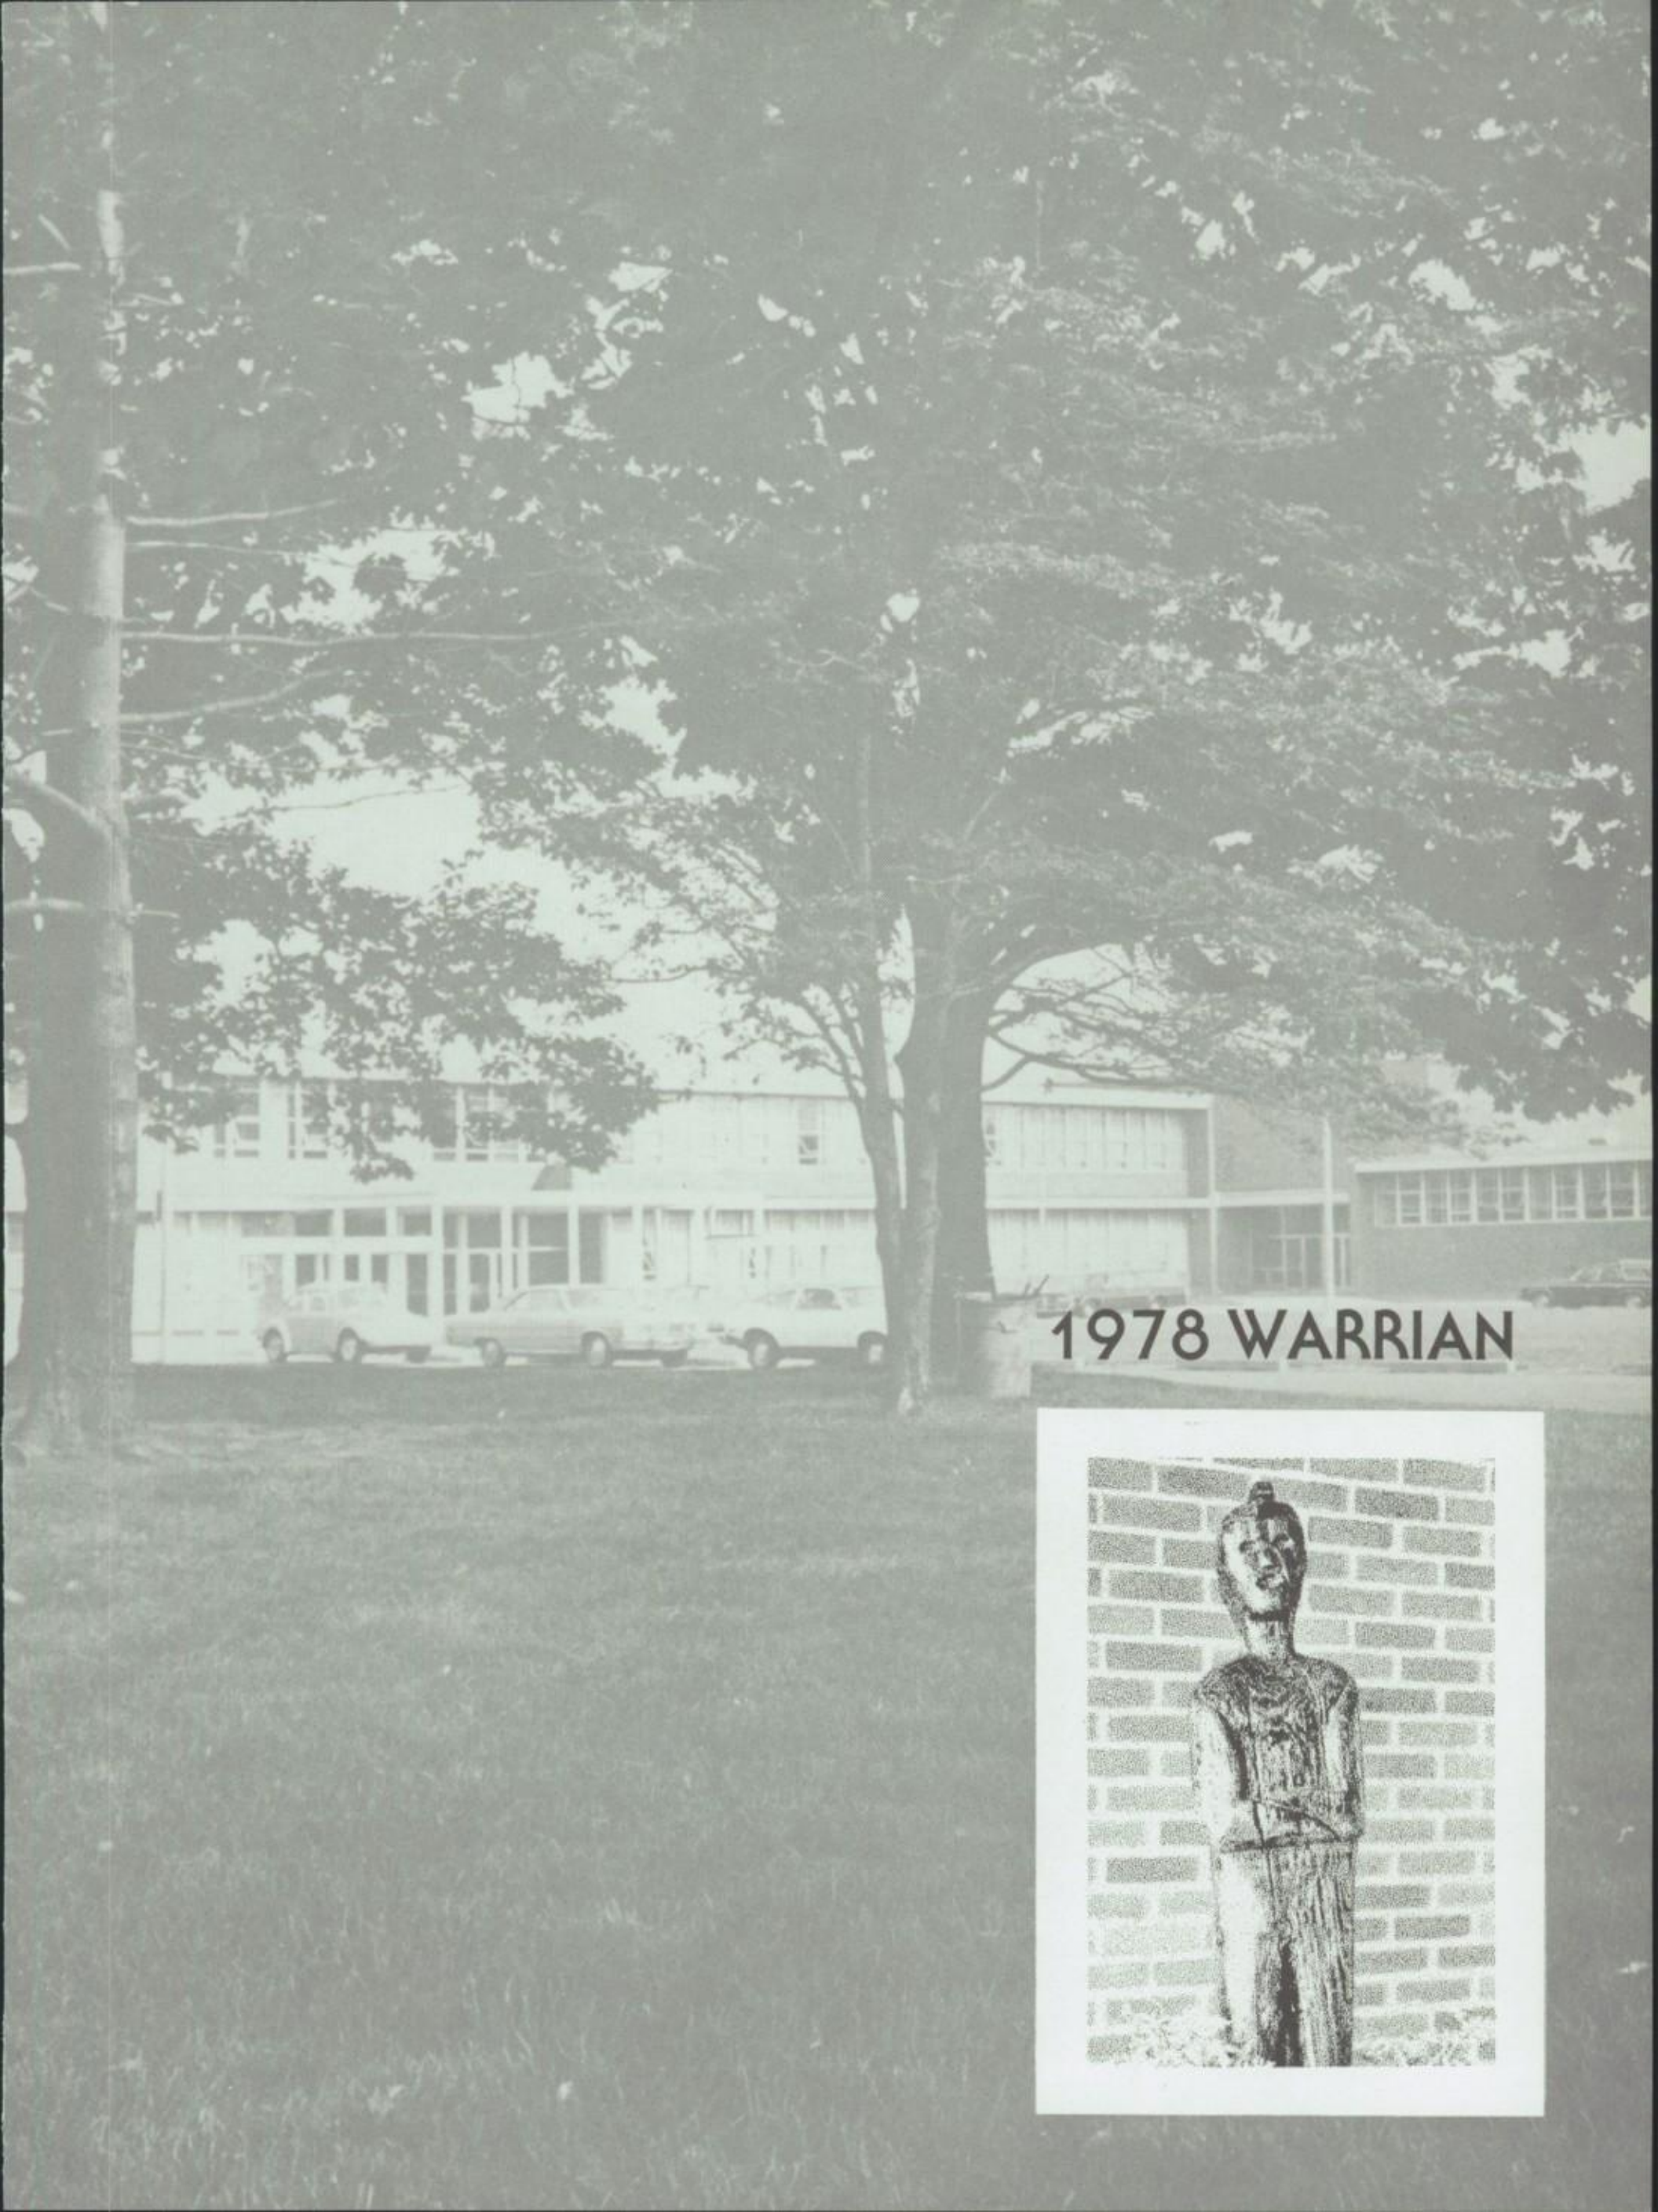

Jerry - "Herman"
 To a nice guy I got to know better
 in world cultures.
 Good luck with football but be careful
 when you drive
 Do me a favor;
 when you see me walking on the road please don't run me over!
 Take care and
 Be careful.

Now comes the dawn of new light,
Beginning a brand new day,
A light that shines upon us,
In a very special way.

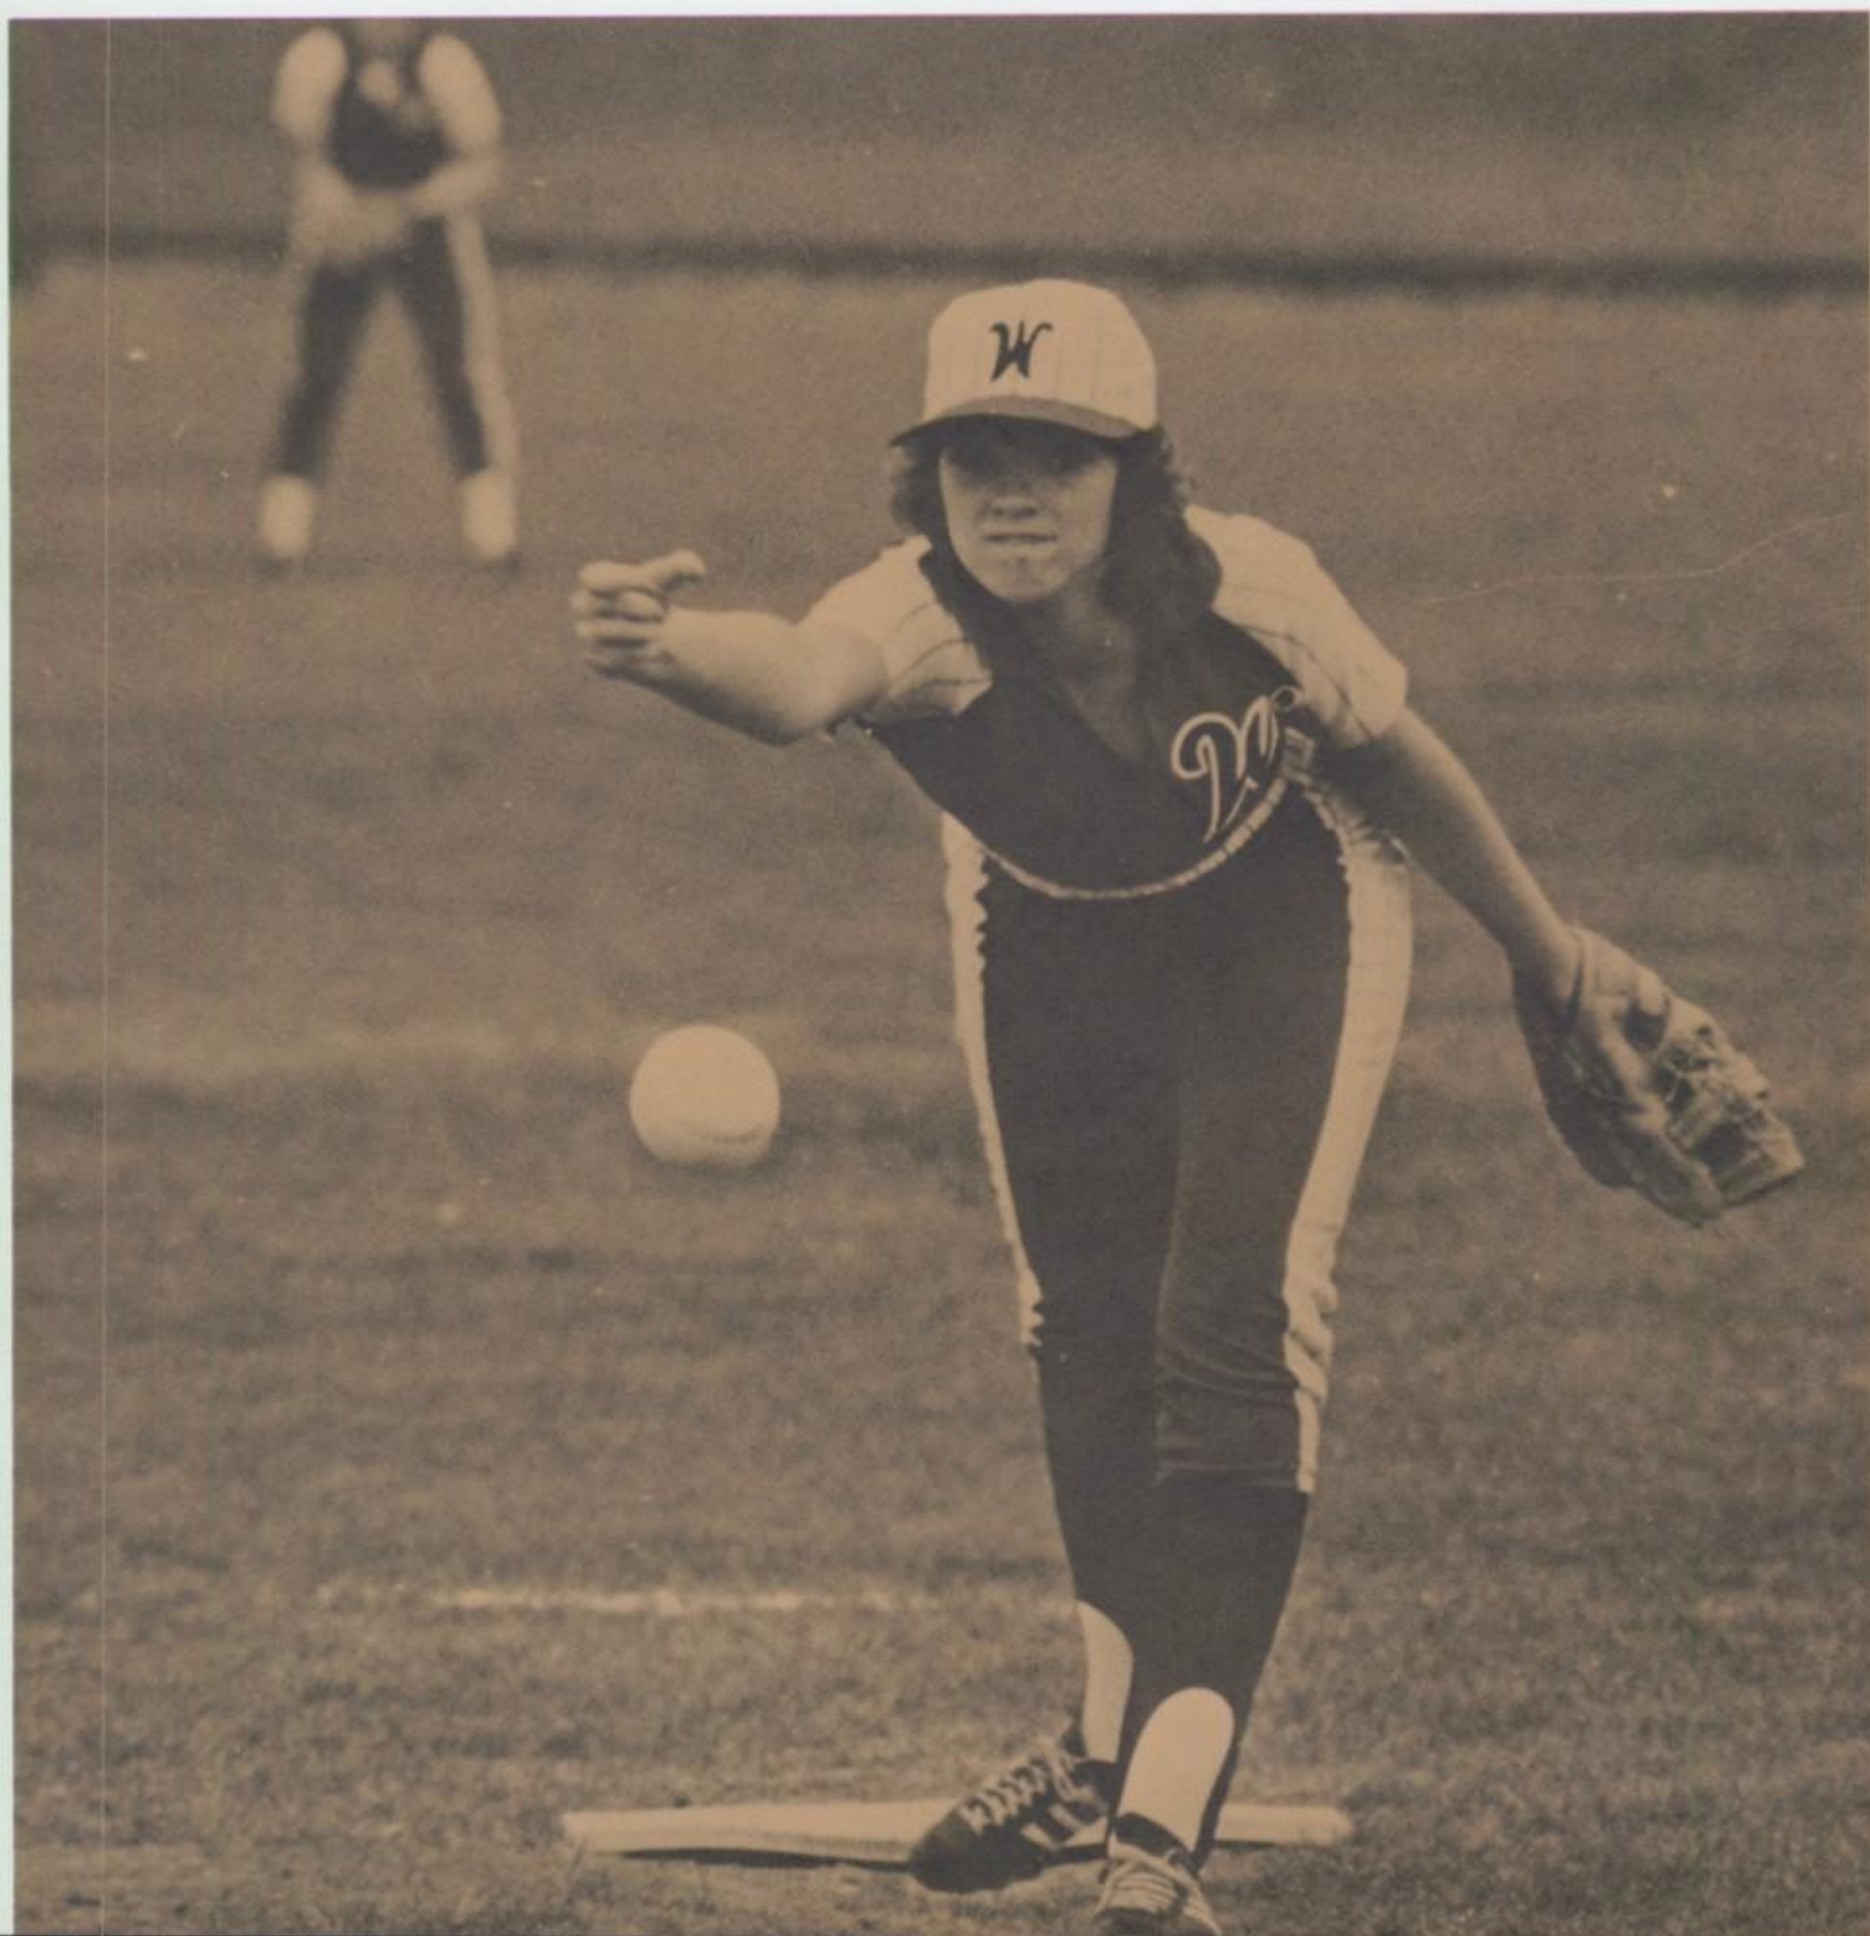

It shines with hope, inspiration, and love,
And brings out golden memories.
It spreads the light of friendships,
Beyond the deepest, darkest seas.

The sunrise is bright once again,
And the horizon is a precious sight,
So share with us these captured moments,
While the day slowly turns to night.

Jim Longenecker

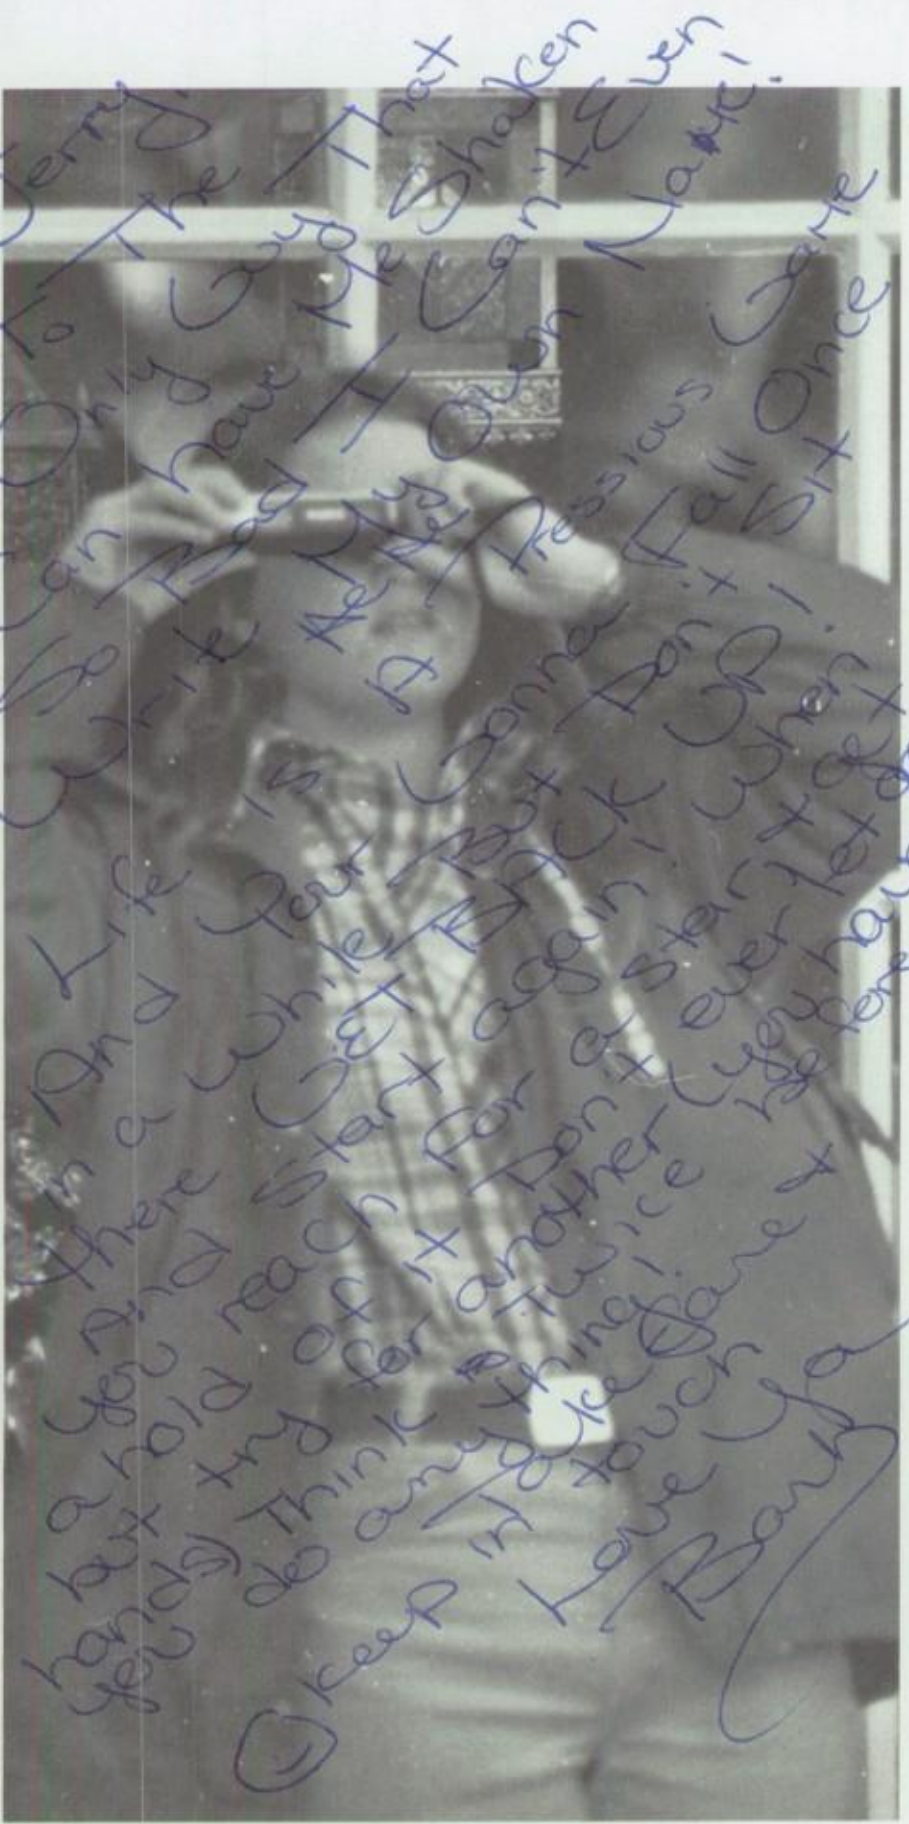

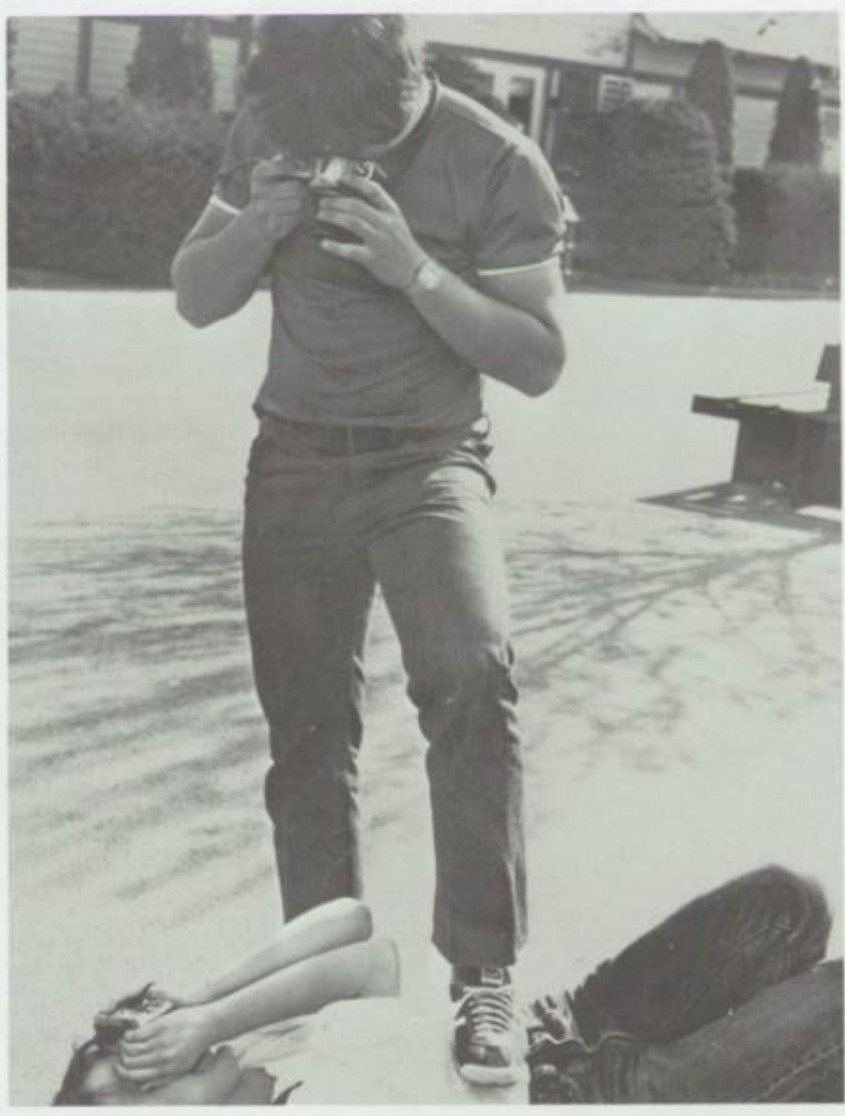

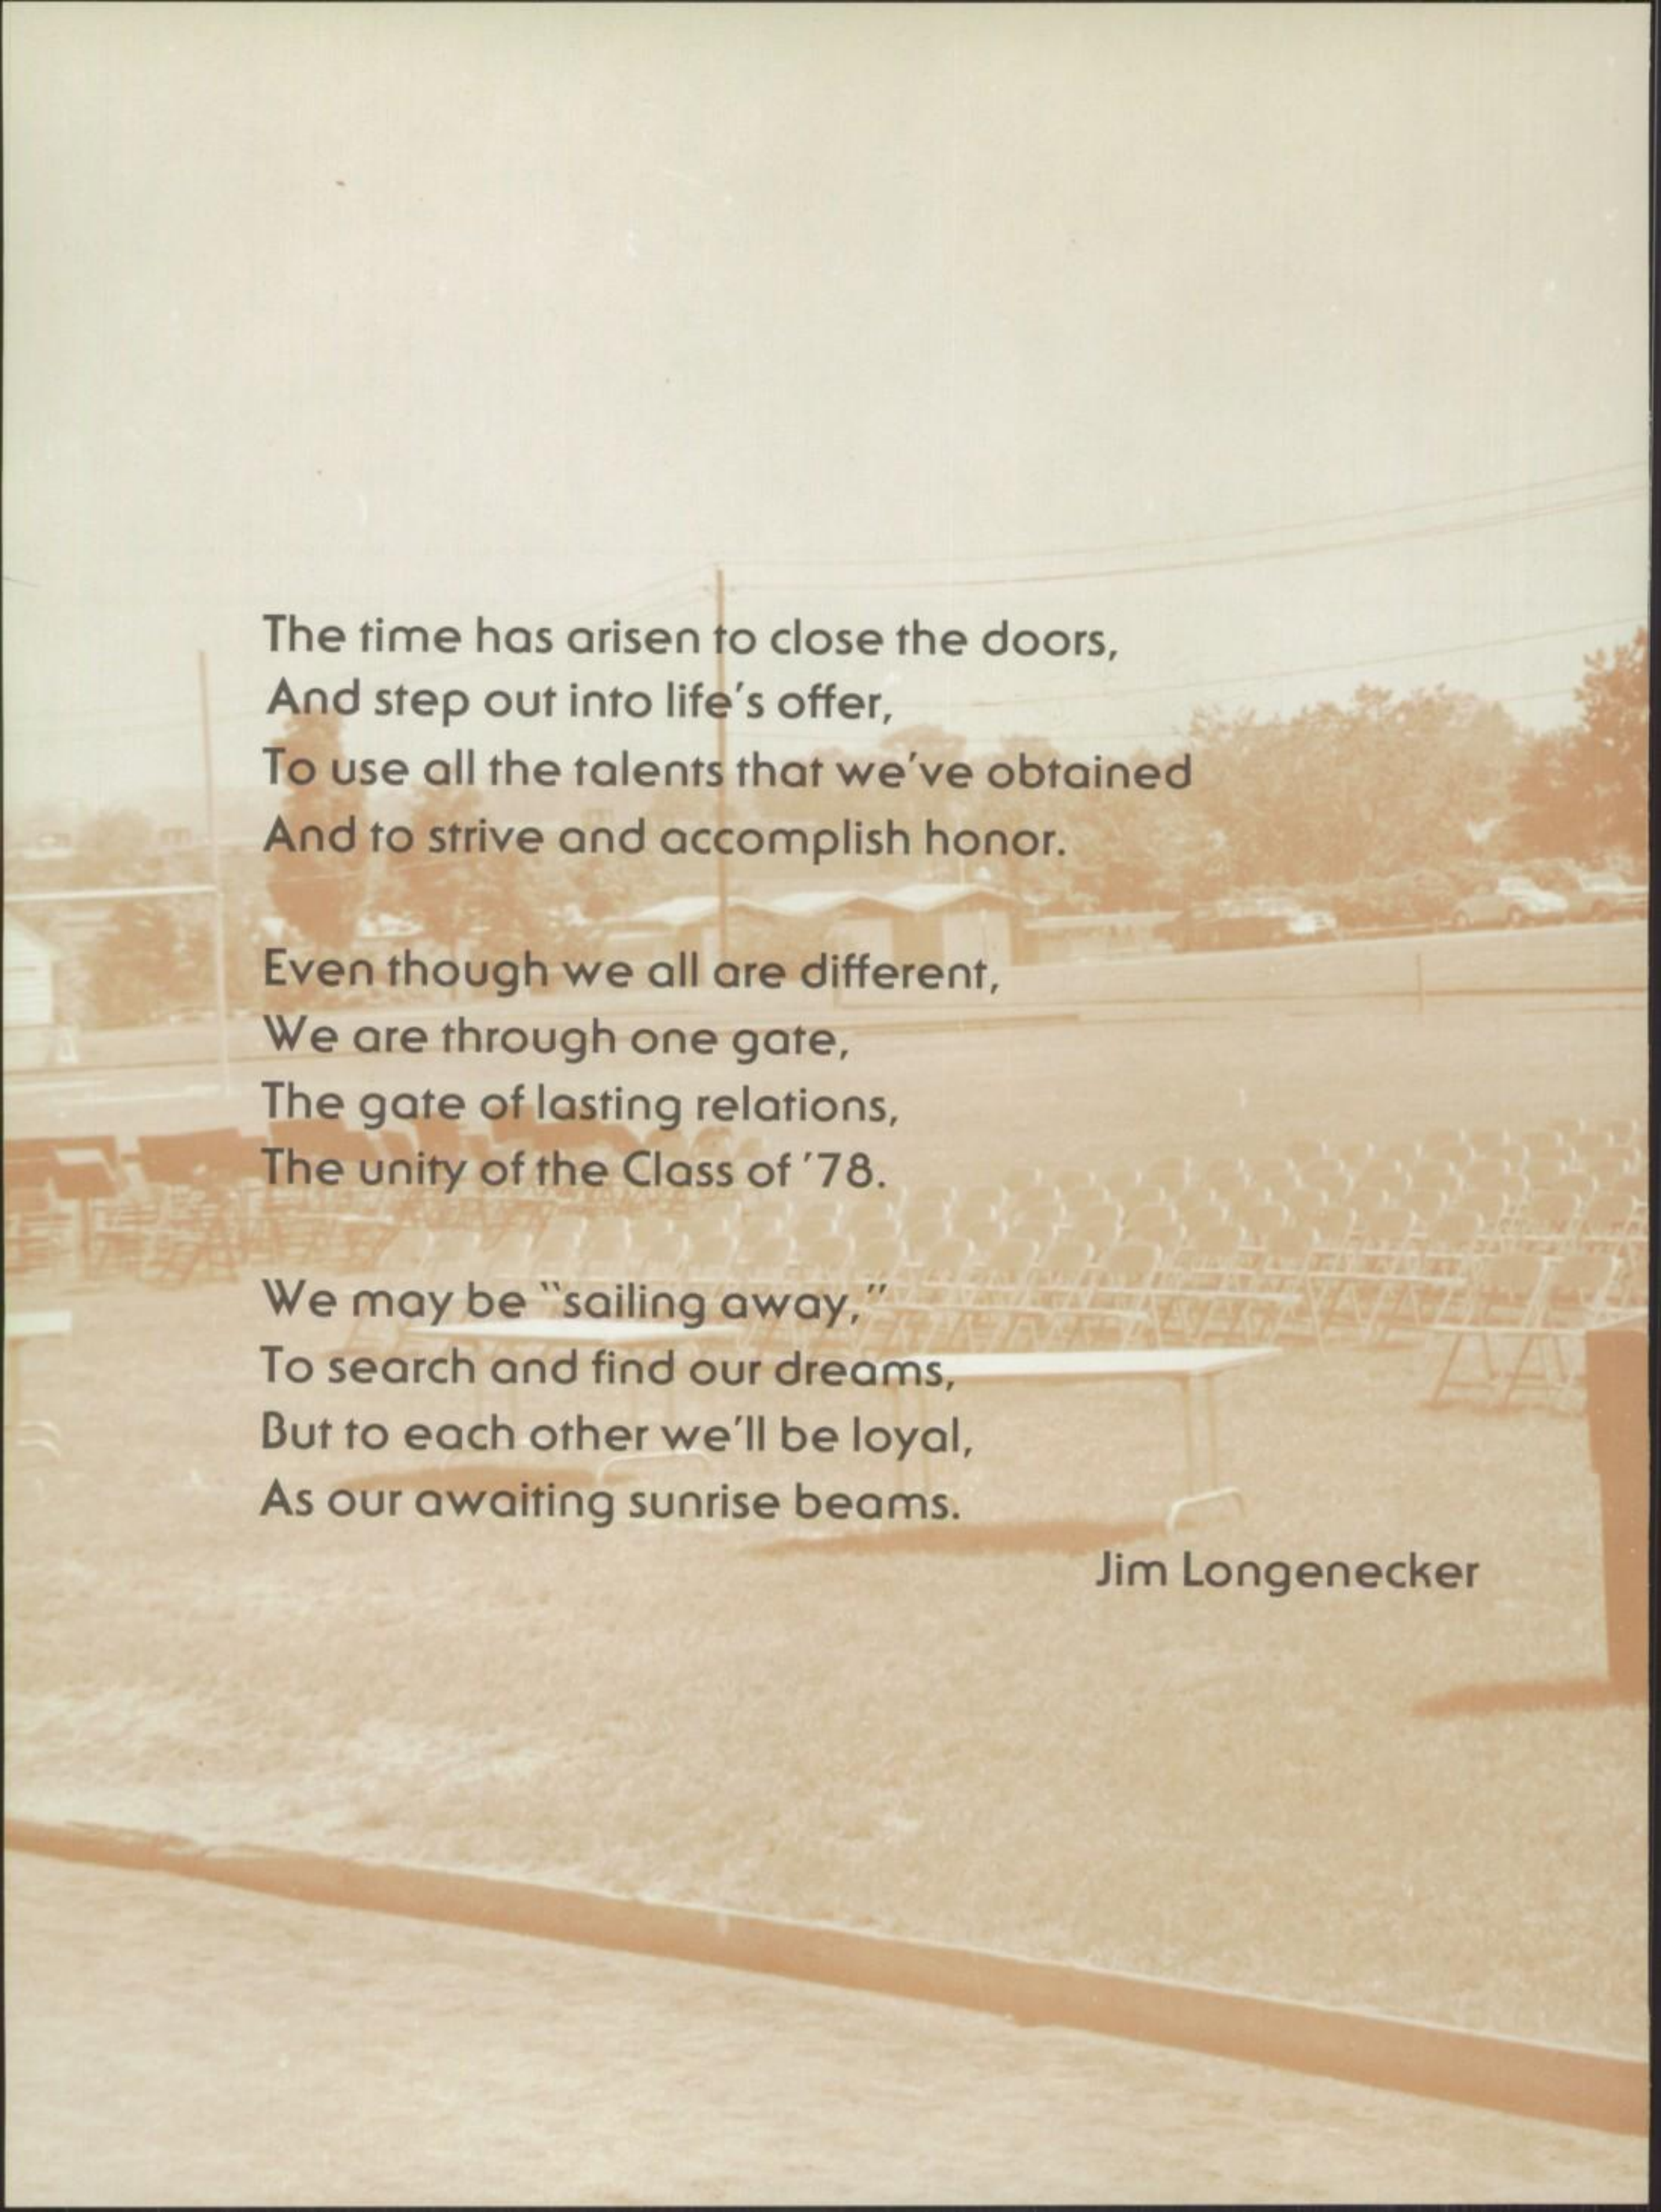

Terry
To The
Only Guy That
Can Have Me Shaken
Up
Write Your Own Name!
Life is gonna fall once you put down when you start again. When you let go you have to try to reach for a star
do think for another keep in touch
Love
Darryl

The background of the page is a sepia-toned photograph of an outdoor sports field. In the foreground, there are rows of empty metal bleachers. In the middle ground, there is a long, low building, possibly a school cafeteria or gymnasium. The background is filled with trees and a clear sky. The overall tone is nostalgic and warm.

The time has arisen to close the doors,
And step out into life's offer,
To use all the talents that we've obtained
And to strive and accomplish honor.

Even though we all are different,
We are through one gate,
The gate of lasting relations,
The unity of the Class of '78.

We may be "sailing away,"
To search and find our dreams,
But to each other we'll be loyal,
As our awaiting sunrise beams.

A black and white photograph of a red rose surrounded by baby's breath flowers. The rose is in the upper right, and the baby's breath is in the lower left. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light color.

Song—Come Sail Away - Styx

Colors—Brandy and Ivory

Flower—Red Rose surrounded with Baby's Breath

Motto—I am not afraid of tomorrow for I have seen yesterday, and I love today.

We are called "squirts", and "rednecks", and "twirps",
Who get blamed for everything,
But actually we are angels,
And are found to be notably charming.

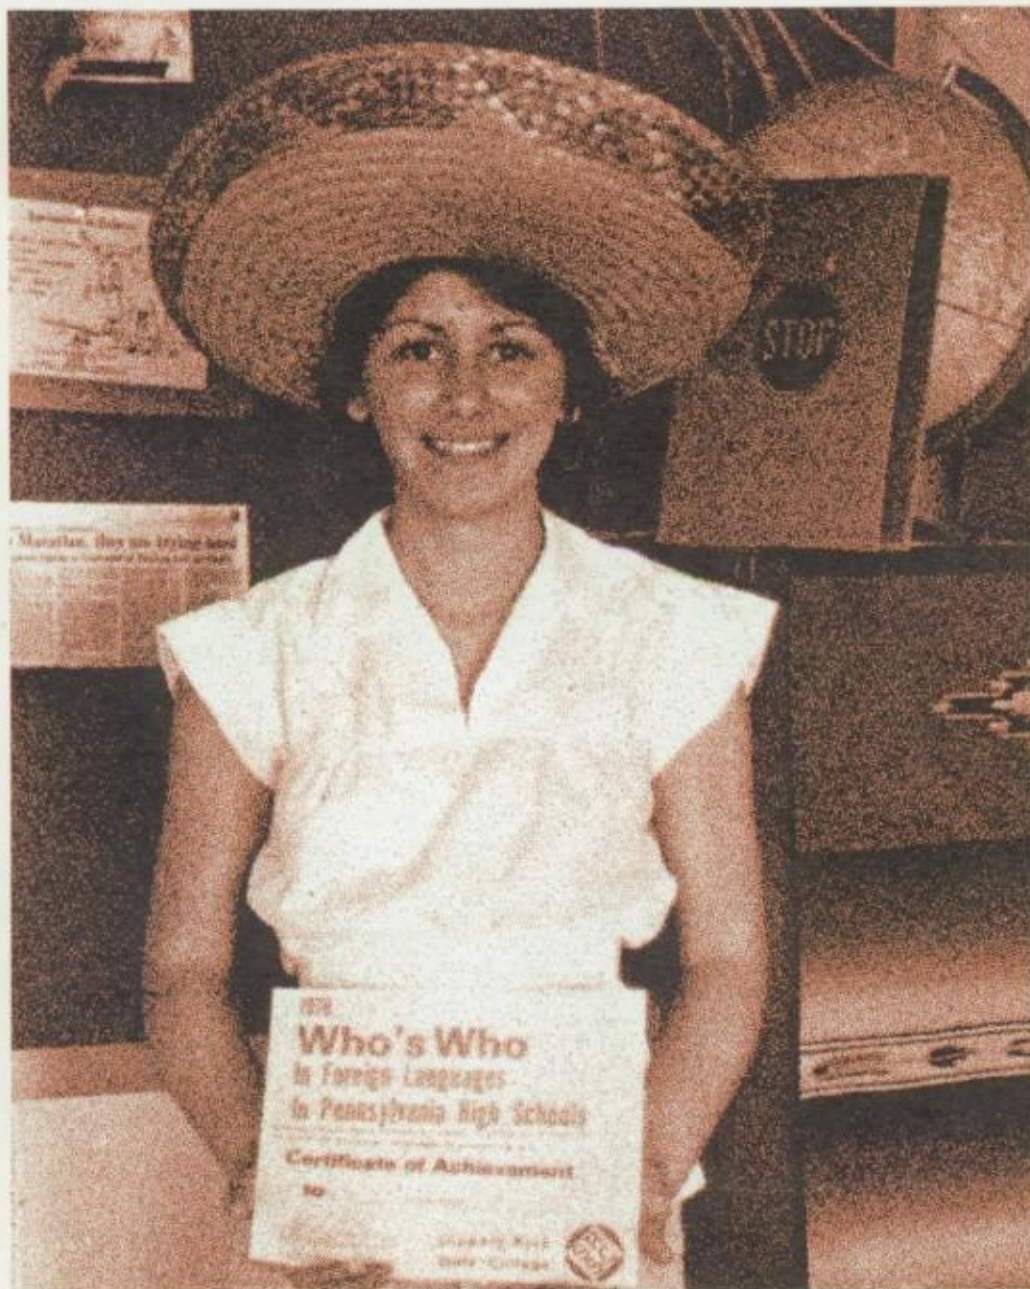

We charm our way through hassles,
With the good old front office,
We brown-nose with our teachers,
And rarely make a fuss.

But when the charming's over,
And our fourth year enters in,
We become notorious, rowdy, students,
Known as the Privileged Upperclassmen.

Sitting in school all day,
Can really become a bore,
But when the day is over,
Is when activities begin to soar.

Memorizing lines for plays,
And preparing for the talent show,
Working hard to make yearbook dates,
And just constantly on the go.

So take pride in all the extra things,
That benefit you in the future,
And cherish those good times you had,
For it is activities you'll remember.

Spirit Week

Perhaps the most colorful and interesting time of the school year is the week preceding Homecoming, known as "Spirit Week." Spirit Week is a period of four or five days designed to promote interest and spirit, and to get the team "psyched up" for the big game.

The idea, sponsored by the Student Government, has been held for many years but is becoming increasingly popular. More students are beginning to participate, and this year, even some of the faculty members were involved. Apparently the idea works, as the Warriors went on to defeat Ephrata 16-7.

Homecoming

1977

With Walt Disney as the theme of this year's homecoming festivities, it was difficult to tell the difference between the football field and a scene from Disney on Parade. This theme was vividly portrayed in the annual float competition held among the high school classes. The Senior float based on Mary Poppins tied for first place with the Juniors' rendition of the World of Disney. The freshmen came in second with A Small World and Sophomores third with Dumbo. Cheryl Martin was chosen as this year's Homecoming Queen. Her court consisted of eight seniors: Sharon Drewen, Chris Engle, Chris Hershey, Tracy Lehman, Danell Martin, Jody Micheal, Lauree Sallee, and Kathleen Zellner; and the underclassmen attendants: Joanne Washchysion, Wendy Teaman, and Kathy Haddad.

The Warwick Warriors massacred the Ephrata Mounts 16 to 7, taking the sectional title. The victorious year was celebrated at the annual Homecoming dance which brought the festivities to an end.

Harvey

Did you ever have the feeling that you were being watched; yet no one was there? Many students experienced this sensation the week of the all-school play, "Harvey".

MIDDLE RIGHT: Lois Lantz, Nancy Woolley, Kelly Kent: Myrtle May and Judge Gafney help Vera to a chair.

"Harvey" is a comedy about a 50-year-old man, Elwood P. Dowd, and his friend, a 6'2" white pooka rabbit. Elwood, thought to be mentally insane, is committed to a mental hospital by his sister Vera. It didn't take long before the audience was roaring with laughter as a result of identity mixups, disappearances, and the comical lines smoothly recited by the actors. As the play progressed a few characters began to wonder if Elwood was really wacky after all. And as the production, directed by Mrs. Buchanio, ended, the audience left praising the fine acting and stage work, realizing that this enjoyable play was one they would long remember.

A 6'2" white rabbit?! Don't laugh! Reports say that more than one person admits to seeing this strange phenomenon. And rumor has it, that Harvey may still be roaming the halls of Warwick.

The 1977-78 school year hosted a much better assembly program than did the previous year. Along with the annual Talent show and Awards Assembly, many other programs were presented. The energy production, presented by Penn State, was informative as well as enjoyable, as was the Advertising assembly by Coca-Cola.

Along with the production by the Coca-Cola Co., a disc jockey from radio station WLAN spoke to the students of Warwick. A few students participated in this assembly, and the voice of the entire student body was later heard over the air waves of Lancaster's radio station. The highlight of the assembly program was the music of the U.S. Navy band "Port Authority". The band showed excellent musicianship in all of the numbers they performed, and was quite well received by the audience. The success of all these assemblies was enhanced by the excellent student participation and attitude.

Slave Era Returns to Warwick

On Wednesday, February 22, 1978, TEEPEE TOPICS sponsored its annual Slave Day auction. In case you did not know, this auction is one of the many ways in which TEEPEE TOPICS raises funds. For those who wanted to be a slave, they had to fill out a form describing themselves. Then forms were reviewed by TEEPEE TOPICS to rule out any obscene remarks. During the club period on Wednesday, the auction was held. Some contestants were sold for as little as 50 cents, while some of the more desirable students were sold for $9.50! The initials of the contestants were (tentatively) not to be given. But when the highest bids were less than a dollar, the change was made to reveal the initials. This was only after a complete description of the person was given, and the bidders were still vague as to whom they were purchasing. On Friday, February 24, the actual Slave Day was held. The slave had to do as their "masters" commanded. Buying their lunch, carrying their books, and escorting them to class were some of the wishes. Those involved seemed to enjoy it. Getting out of classes early to be at their master's classes by the time of dismissal was permitted. Being late for class was also allowed.

Graduation Speeches

An End

In 1961, John F. Kennedy wrote, "We observe today not a victory of party but a celebration of freedom, symbolizing an end as well as a beginning, signifying renewal as well as change . . ." Although this quote was intended as part of his inaugural address, its contents are applicable to an event such as commencement. This evening's speeches will analyze the four key points of Kennedy's statement as they relate to commencement.

Even though commencement signifies a beginning of independence, a renewal of awareness, and a change in lifestyle, it is also an end for both students and parents. Parents have watched their child mature, both physically and mentally from infancy to adolescence to young adulthood. Along this path of development, parents have given their love and understanding, their advice and patience to their growing, changing offspring. As their child becomes increasingly capable of accepting responsibility, the parents are forced to loosen the apron strings. Commencement signifies the final breaking of parental ties.

Similarly, the student experiences a breaking of his ties with the school. To some degree all students are influenced by and have attachments with the school. Some students involve themselves exclusively with the academic requirements for graduation; others participate in a variety of school related activities. Regardless of the degree of involvement, however, all students are members of a miniature community, the school system. Graduation symbolizes the end of their involvement in this small society.

By leaving this small community behind, students must also leave behind the relationships which they have formed. Throughout their involvement in activities, each student has come in contact with many types of people with different interests and personalities. Many of these relationships have become meaningful and necessary. Commencement marks the end of the close contact with these friends who will go their own ways to begin their own lives. Yes, commencement is an end for parents and students alike. All that is left are memories that will never be forgotten.

Denise McIntyre

A Beginning

Although commencement marks the end of parental ties and the end of friendships for the high school graduate, he is looking forward to tomorrow. From the time of infancy, children look ahead in anticipation: "Santa Claus is coming tomorrow. The swimming pool opens tomorrow. We're going to Florida tomorrow." The tomorrow for which we have been waiting, however, is much more important. Tomorrow is the beginning of adult life for high school graduates.

With tomorrow comes the beginning of our independence. We have been looking forward to the day when we would be free from school discipline and also free from our parents. Soon, everyone of us will either go to college, join the service, pursue a career, or get married and raise a family. In all of these ventures, we will be independent. Those going to will be many miles from home, and Mom and Dad will obviously not be able to look over Johnnie's or Janie's shoulder every minute. The military will quickly divorce those who have enlisted from all ties. These future patriots will be so busy that they will not have time to feel homesick. Independence will come rapidly to the servicemen among us. Those who choose to pursue a vocation or who choose to raise a family will have to be even more independent than the collegians or the servicemen. Yes, these individuals will be out in that cruel, harsh world, earning a living and trying to support a family. Independence is most important and will come most quickly to them. I hope that all of us who have longed to be away from home will be able to handle the independence.

With this new-found and long-awaited independence comes the advent of great, new responsibilities. Most of us have never been away from home for more than a week, and we have no idea of how to cope in the world. Once we graduate and leave the nest, we will have to manage our own financial affairs. No longer will we be able to ask Dad for five bucks because the car needs gas; no longer will the money just be available at our every whim. We will have to establish and stand by a budget. For some of us, this will be extremely difficult. Perhaps even more important than the financial responsibility is the fact that everyone of us will have to begin making value decisions. Values which, up to this time, parents have dictated will be laid bare for each to examine. No one at college, no one in the service, no one on the job is going to watch us every second and say, "Hey! You can't drink!" or "Hey! You may not smoke!" It is our responsibility to make our own decisions. Yes, the independence that graduation brings certainly marks the beginning of responsibility for each and every one of us.

Graduation surely signifies a beginning for today's graduates. It is the beginning of independence and responsibility; it is the beginning of something new for the Class of 1978. The beginning which we look forward to we face with anticipation, yet with apprehension; with glee, yet with sadness; with hope, yet with memories. Just as Kennedy looked forward to the beginning of a new administration.

Lee A. Bartholomew

A Renewal

This commencement marks for us not only an end and a beginning, but also a renewal—the experience of the past and the challenge of the future combines as a reawakening. We realize that we will abandon the dependence of our high school years and adopt the independence of the years ahead, but still, our lives will not be totally different. A familiarity will remain, one based on the sum of our knowledge and experience of the past, and upon this familiarity we will base our renewal.

Renewal will present itself to us in many ways, the most immediate of which is through our parents. As high school graduates, our parents made promises to themselves to create a better world and a better life for themselves and for future generations. We are the renewal of these promises. In us, our parents can see their hopes for progress and success become a reality.

Our community and society will also be renewed through us. We, as graduates can provide new ideas and fresh conceptions for business and industry. The knowledge we have gained in high school will mature into skills applicable in many areas. Each of us can initiate renewal in our community and force change in society. In adopting and carrying forth changes, we fulfill our responsibility to create a better world for ourselves and for others.

By dedicating ourselves to the attainment of the goals established by our parents, our community, and society, we strengthen a sense of renewal within ourselves—a renewal of pride, self-confidence, and awareness. Throughout our high school years, we have taken pride in our performances: a fine report card, a hard-fought football game, an admirable band concert—all worthy of our pride. Also in high school, we have known the feeling of self-confidence. While working on various assignments and projects, we all realized our abilities and acknowledged that we were capable of successfully completing our work. The completion of an important assignment such as a term paper, gave us confidence as did a well-written composition or an art project. Finally, having completed four years of high school, we have acquired an awareness—an appreciation of the ideals and talents of others. We became aware of the seriousness of today's society and our role in it. These feelings which we have acquired in school—pride, self-confidence, and awareness, will not be lost after graduation. To the contrary they will be renewed as we strive to do our best in the pursuit of vocations or college careers. The sum of all our experience gained in high school will remain with us ready for use and our renewal.

Barbara Welshofer

A Change

A renewal of pride and self-confidence is essential, but commencement marks one of the most decisive changes in life. President Kennedy stressed change in his inaugural address. He stated that a "new generation" of Americans had taken over leadership of the country. Emphasis focused on the new, changing ideas of youths. The 1978 graduating class has much potential for augmenting new understanding and leadership in the world. But, the teenager must adjust to a new life style, whether marriage, a job, the military, or college is in his future. This adjustment is an important aspect of personal growth. Change is a necessity.

The world is constantly changing. Many of these variations are so natural that they go unnoticed. Every morning the sun rises to start a new day, and every evening the sun sets to end the yesterday of tomorrow. The year evolves around four seasons, each completely different from the other. A cold and barren winter resolves into a fertile and blossoming spring. Without these variations, life would be very dull. Every day would be identical and one's life style would lack flair and excitement.

But, many changes are more obvious and provocative than the seasonal transitions. The metamorphosis of a butterfly is a wondrous experience. An uncomely caterpillar spins a cocoon and a few months later a butterfly, a radiant panoply of color, bursts forth. In addition, clothing styles are constantly changing. A few years ago everyone wore old, tattered blue jeans and t-shirts; now, most students are clothed in a more stylish mode of attire. Furthermore, some of the most extreme changes occur in the area of dancing. Twenty years ago the jitterbug was the craze; one short decade ago the twist was the rage; and today disco makes the scene. Moreover, a drastic change has occurred in the past four years. A naive rookie has matured into a sophisticated senior in 1978.

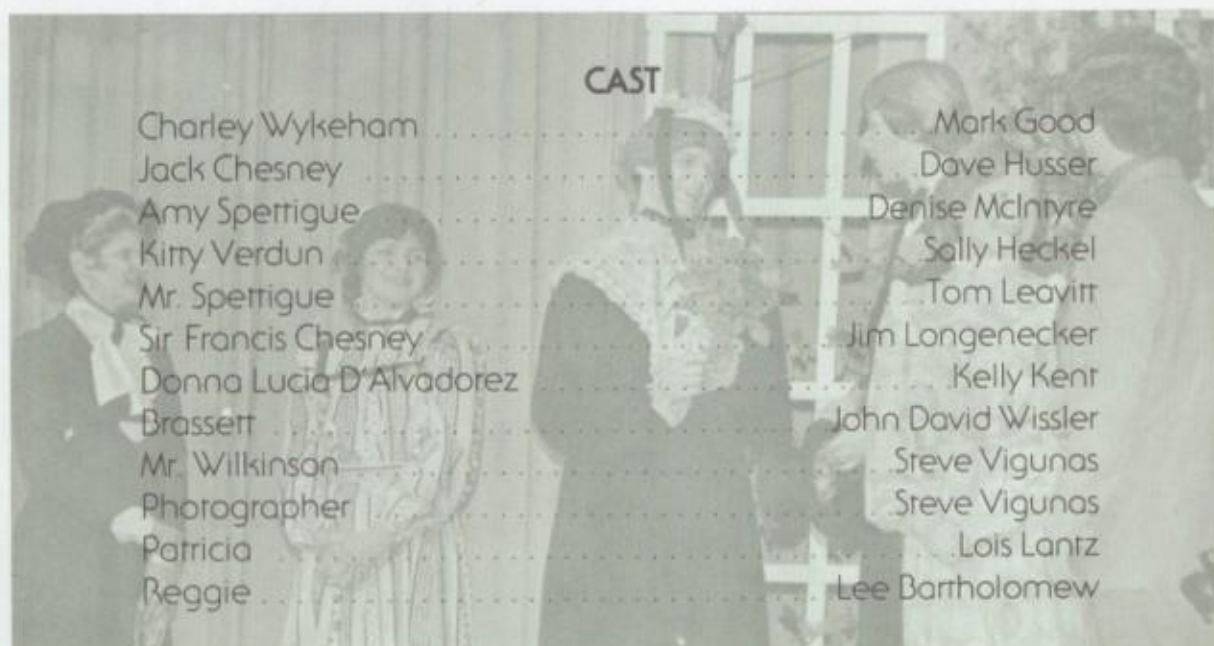

But most important, change affects an individual. A person is constantly changing emotionally, intellectually, and psychologically. Throughout adolescence a teenager is incessantly altering his values. As a child a person's intellect and emotions are undeveloped. He values materialism and desires only personal satisfaction. But as this child matures, values change and personal growth occurs. The wish of a red fire engine for Christmas turns to a desire of understanding the hurt feelings of a close friend. He begins to care about others and strives for intellectual stimulation. Moreover, an individual who desires change aims for self-improvement. If a person is willing to alter his emotions, he can experience control and satisfaction. For example, redirected aggression can be converted to the power of a superior defensive tackle on a football team. Self-improvement and the attainment of goals are possible by internal desire and willingness to change.

The high school years have been a time of emotional growth and change. Commencement is the end of one phase of life, but the beginning of a new era—a time to look back on memories, but also to look forward with anticipation. Commencement is a renewal of pride, but the change of a way of life—a time to revive self-confidence, but also to aim for self-improvement. Certainly, President Kennedy in his inaugural address did not expect the end, beginning, renewal, and change that he spoke of to have an equally significant impact for the Warwick class of '78.

When the directors sat down to plan the musical for this year, they selected a basically unknown musical. It was not a famous Rogers and Hammerstein classic, but rather a comedy musical entitled "Where's Charley".

Mark Good made his debut as an actor in the role of Charley Wystem, an energetic college student at Oxford University during the late 1800's. It was an especially difficult role, considering Mark had to portray a double character, Charley, and his aunt. The dilemma Charley gets himself into results when he and his roommate Jack Chesney, played by Dave Husser, decide to invite their two girlfriends, Amy and Kitty over to their dorm one afternoon. Amy, played by Denise McIntyre, and Kitty, Sally Heckel, are dismayed that Charley's millionaire Aunt Donna Lucia D'Alvadores, has not shown up for chaperone duty. Jack quickly coaxes Charley to dress up as his aunt so that the girls can stay. Believe it or not, Charley fools everyone—until everyone starts to wonder "Where's Charley?" The merry mix-ups occur when Jack's father, Sir Francis Chesney, played by Jim Longenecker, proposes to Charley, as the aunt. The greedy Spettique, played by Tom Leavitt, also is out to acquire her wealth, and he makes a proposal to her—or that is—him! They say all is well that ends well, and this play is no exception. Jack and Kitty become "Darlings." Sir Francis falls in love with the real Donna Lucia, played by Kelly Kent, and the biggest romance of them all—Charley falls "Once in Love With Amy."

Many long hours were spent rehearsing the successful show, and a special thanks must go the Mrs. Linda Buchanio (director), Mrs. June Lantz (musical director), Mrs. Dee Ann Showers (Choreography), Dan Neidermyer (Maranatha productions director, who donated his time to helping the musical), and all the other faculty members and students who helped put the whole performance together.

Spring Fling Dress Up Days

The Spring Fling sprang into action on the week of May 8th to the 13th. It began on Monday with Bum Day. Students wore jeans, T-shirts, sandals, hats, and sun glasses. Most people participated on this day. Tuesday was pajama day which made it easier to fall asleep in class. A spring fling week must have a crazy day: this was scheduled for Wednesday. Because this was an "almost anything goes day," students wore anything from unmatched clothes to clothes of the opposite sex. Thursday was inside-out day. Since quite a few clothes are made inside-out, there wasn't too much difference in the clothing, so many students wore their clothes the regular way. The week ended with Flower day on Friday. Boys could secretly send carnations to girls or vice-versa. Each color had a different meaning. Red meant "I love you", pink meant "I'd like to get to know you better", and white meant "Friends". Friday was also the date of the second annual Warwick Talent Show. Acts ranged from song, dance, comedy routines, to a special appearance by KISS. The second annual Spring Fling carnival was held on Saturday, but due to rain few people participated. The last event of the week was the Spring Fling Dance, which started in full swing at 7:00 Saturday night. The band was Eighth Avenue and they performed many hit songs.

Warwick High School has been gifted with many artistic students, and two talented teachers, Mrs. Lange and Mrs. Moate. The two teachers have about 240 students. In the course of the year students have the opportunity to work in one of these four categories; watercolor, textiles, acrylic, and three-dimensional art. Mrs. Lange's classes meet five times a week, while Mrs. Moate has freshman art only twice a week. The art work is displayed in the showcases near the art rooms and in the front hall.

Prom

On June 2, the Juniors and Seniors, arrived at the Host Farm for the annual prom. After a delicious meal of Hawaiian Ham and baked potatoes, the students as well as teachers showed their fancy footwork on the dance floor. Following the promenade Julie Buckwalter was crowned Prom Queen. As the evening progressed the couples slowly left and headed toward the High School. At the stroke of midnight they entered the enchanting Paradise in the Pacific. Each couple received a lei as they stepped into the plant filled lobby. Live goldfish swam in ponds and music of the South Pacific flowed through the air. A fountain with changing colored lights added to the atmosphere in the gym. The students entered the cafeteria over a small bridge and on each table there were sliced pineapples. The band, O'Ryan, played many hit songs and even sponsored a talent show, which consisted of Jody Micheals, Kevin DeWitt, Mike Lentz, and Craig Edgerton. Close to 5:00 AM the students left for home, tired but satisfied.

After the invocation and scripture, the Glee Club sang several selections including "Rebirth," "Movin' On," and "A Parting Blessing." Donna Beamesderfer sang a solo entitled "Alleluia." "Our Challenge for Today" was the topic of the sermon given by the Reverend David R. Heffner. In all, the service was one which all the senior class can remember.

The Twenty-Second Annual Warwick High School Graduation was held June 6, 1978 on Grosh Field. Student speakers were Denise McNyre, Lee Bartholomew, Barbara Welshofer, and Lori Hill. 250 students graduated before the parents, teachers, and friends in attendance.

Dedication is the key to success,
Giving one-hundred and ten percent,
And that's why we're proud to be Warriors,
And why our teams took us where we went.

Win or lose, we stood proud and tall,
And improved on our mistakes,
And this is the message we leave to you,
Don't give up on those bad breaks.

Keep working until you've won
Your goals and destinies through life's race
And don't ever be satisfied,
With a non-deserving second place.

The 1977 Warwick Warriors, led by second year head coach, Mark Snyder and tri-captains, Tim Hoffman, Troy Clair, and Pete Slivinsky, brought championship football back to Warwick. This year's team had an impressive league record of eight wins and zero losses, finishing on top of rough teams like Ephrata and Manheim Central. In addition to winning the section two trophy, the Warriors won the George Male Traveling trophy for the second straight year. The team placed thirteen players on the all-star team, which is an impressive statistic for the Warriors.

Warwick's field hockey team, coached by Sandra Moyer, filed a record of 6-2-2 in the fall of 1977. The team held strong with the leadership of seniors Cindy Sipe, Denise McIntyre, Missy Habecker, Wendy White, Linda Derck, and Chrystal Engle. These seniors will long remember the pain and hard work they had to overcome in order to become a fine team the whole school could be proud of.

Girls Tennis

This year's tennis team, coached by Mrs. Peg McDonald, compiled a very respectable record of three wins and eight losses, considering the fact that all of the members were underclassmen. The team was led by co-captains Kelly Shank and Patti Biemesderfer. The team considered their season a building season, and with all members of the team returning, have their eyes on the upcoming year.

Cross Country

A key figure on the 1977 cross country team was junior harrier Mike Bomberger. He led the Warwick Cross Country team to 11 wins and 6 losses. This year's team did fairly well in competition. Seniors Lloyd Hemenway, Dave Whitcraft, Randy Herr, Jon Null, and Steve Glath were significant figures on this year's team. Coach Hank Rush did a marvelous job with the harriers.

Golf

Coached by second year mentor Faye Meier, the 1977 golf team proved to the school that they had their place. The team had compiled a record of eight wins and two losses, the best record in at least five years. The enthusiasm of the players and the coach helped the team flourish as a top competitor in the Lancaster-Lebanon League. Senior golfer, Brad Arnold traveled to districts to represent Warwick. He is the first golfer to make it to districts.

Boy's Basketball

The 1978 Warwick basketball team had a very respectable season with the record of 11 and 11 even though they had their troubles. The starters did a heck of a job on the courts. Brett Tennis, Tim Hoffman, Ron Martin, John Knier, and Mike Bomberger should be congratulated for their efforts. The team had a rough time of it, losing in crucial situations, and losing to a very strong Kurtztown team in the play-offs.

Girl's Basketball

Because of a troubled situation, the girls basketball team only had a record of eight wins and eleven losses, but they did fairly well with only two seniors on the squad, Denise McIntyre and Missy Habecker. The team did much better than their record shows, with the help of fine players like Bev Hess and Kelly Shank. A lot of team desire and dedication held this year's girls' basketball team together. The girls deserve a pat on the back.

Led by only three seniors, Chuck Adams, Troy Clair, and Pere Slivinsky, the 1977-1978 Warrior wrestling team proved to be one of the top contenders in the tough Lancaster-Lebanon League, finishing with the league championship tying with E-town. The team clinched the crown after two consecutive wins over Manheim Twp. and Central. Coached by third year mentor, Gerry McDonald, the underclassmen proved that they were vital parts to the team. With fine wrestlers like Steve Bass, Jeff Rosenberger, Chip Nuss, Jim Mellinger, Glenn Walter, and Gene Miller, no wonder the Warriors won the championship for the third straight year.

The 1978 baseball team, headed by Coach Jay Harry, put together a winning season. The team ended up with a 10 and 8 record and placed third in the league. The Warriors had only four seniors on the squad, Brian Eidemiller, Scott Harnley, Troy Clair and Brian Eshelman. An outstanding job was done by the pitching staff, and the developing younger players. Warwick baseball will have a bright future, if its players continue to progress.

Softball

This year, the girl's softball team made their mark in the history of the Warwick High School. Sixty-four girls turned out for the team, but after many days of strenuous training, hard practice, and aching muscles, only thirty-two girls were chosen to represent the school. The varsity team had a moderate season with coach Sandy Moyer leading them all the way. The team ended up with a 5-10 record for their first year.

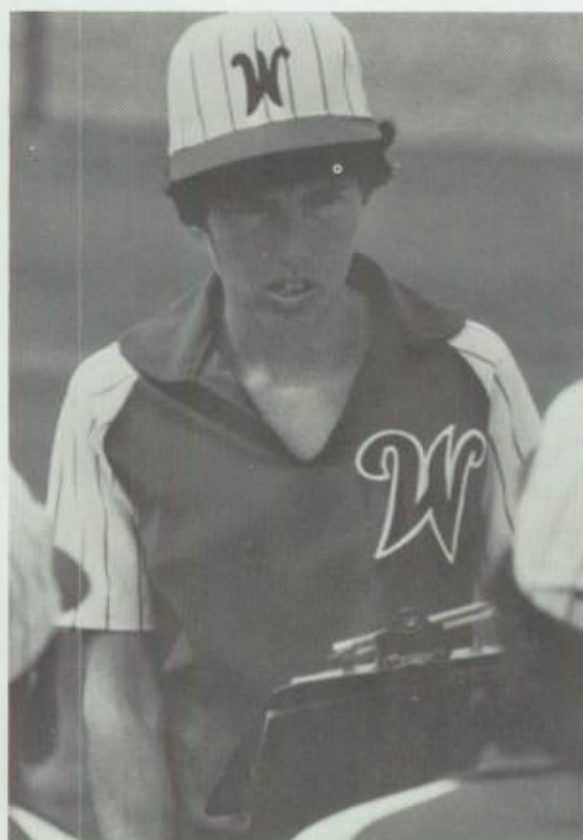

The junior varsity also had a fair season, and for the year, ended up with a 5-8 record. The JV squad consisted of 16 players and were coached by Barb Spangler. Until next year's season, many errors will be ironed out to make a better team. But for the first girl's softball team this has been a truly good year.

Field Dedication to Dr. Grosh

FIELD DEDICATED TO DR. GROSH

In a ceremony that lasted about twenty minutes, the decision of the Varsity Club was fulfilled. Last year's members of the Varsity Club decided that some recognition was due to the physician who gave his dedicated service to the athletes of our school. Therefore, on September 10, 1977, the Warwick football field was dedicated to Dr. Joseph W. Grosh. The field was officially named Dr. Joseph W. Grosh field.

Speaking at the service, Senator Manbeck, Dr. Bonfield, and Mr. Swisher were glad to honor Dr. Grosh. In addition to these speakers, a telegram from President Carter was read, and a portrait of Dr. Grosh was presented by Denise Zimmerman to Mr. Swisher.

The portrait of Dr. Grosh and the newly named field will serve as a constant reminder of the dedication and services that Dr. Grosh has given our school.

The new portrait of Dr. Grosh was hung in the football showcase located in the gymnasium lobby.

The background of the page is a warm, orange-toned photograph. It depicts a cluttered desk or workspace. In the upper right, a vintage typewriter is visible. The desk is covered with numerous papers, some of which are pinned to a wall or board in the background. The overall atmosphere is nostalgic and busy.

Never forget the great time,
Spent with your organization,
No matter how large or small it was,
It was always lots of fun.

Choosing leaders and working hard,
To accomplish all its goals,
And almost always selling items,
Candy Bars and Tootsie Rolls.

But in the end it was worth it,
To make friends and establish honor,
And represent yourself and group,
And to draw others nearer.

Band

This year the band has again gained a name for themselves in their performances across southeastern PA. Their entourage included competitions at Ephrata (first), Lower Daulphin (first), Central Bucks (second), Cocalico (third), Lebanon (fourth), and the band also maintained from last year their fourth place standing in the National Championships held at the Vet Stadium in Philadelphia.

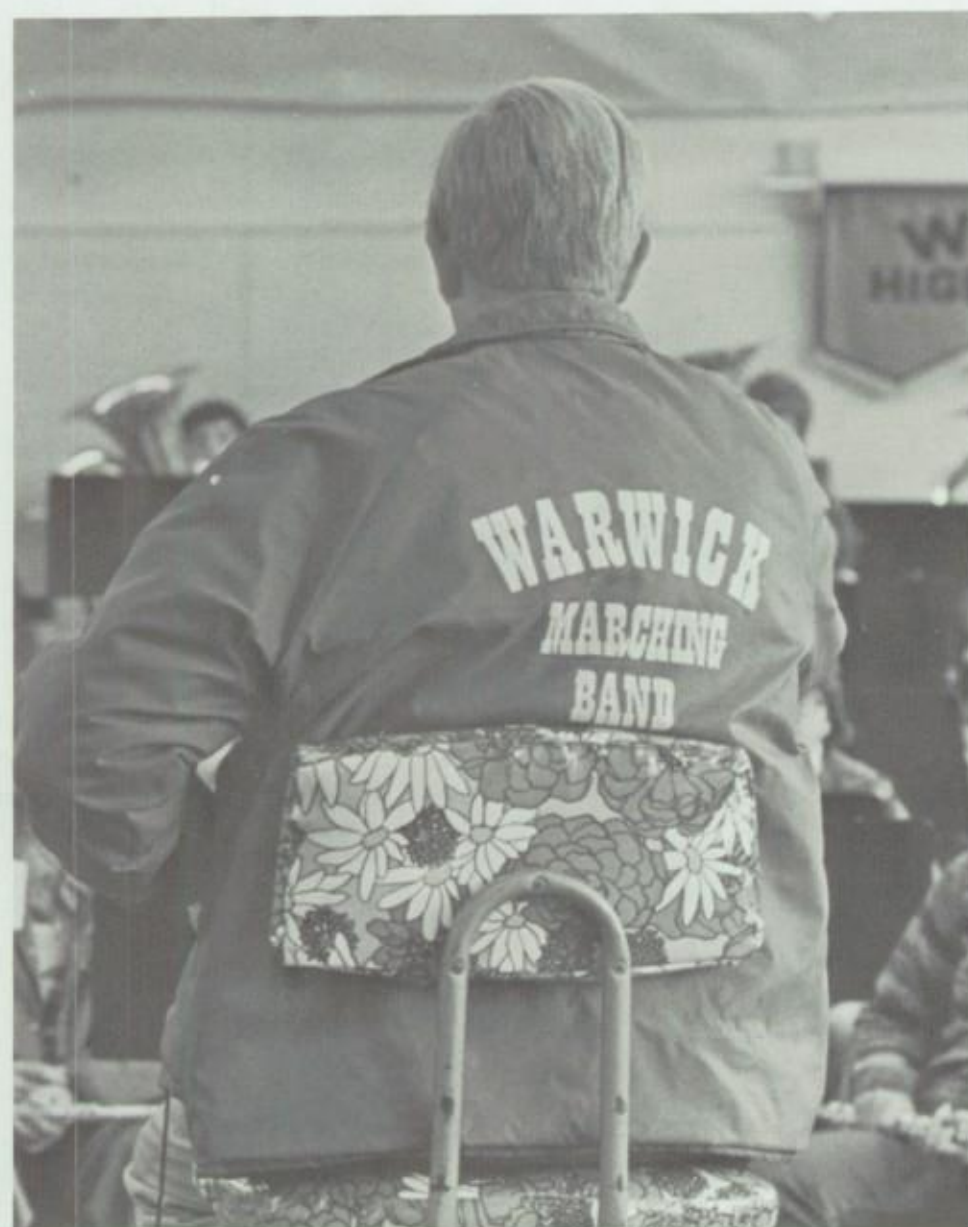

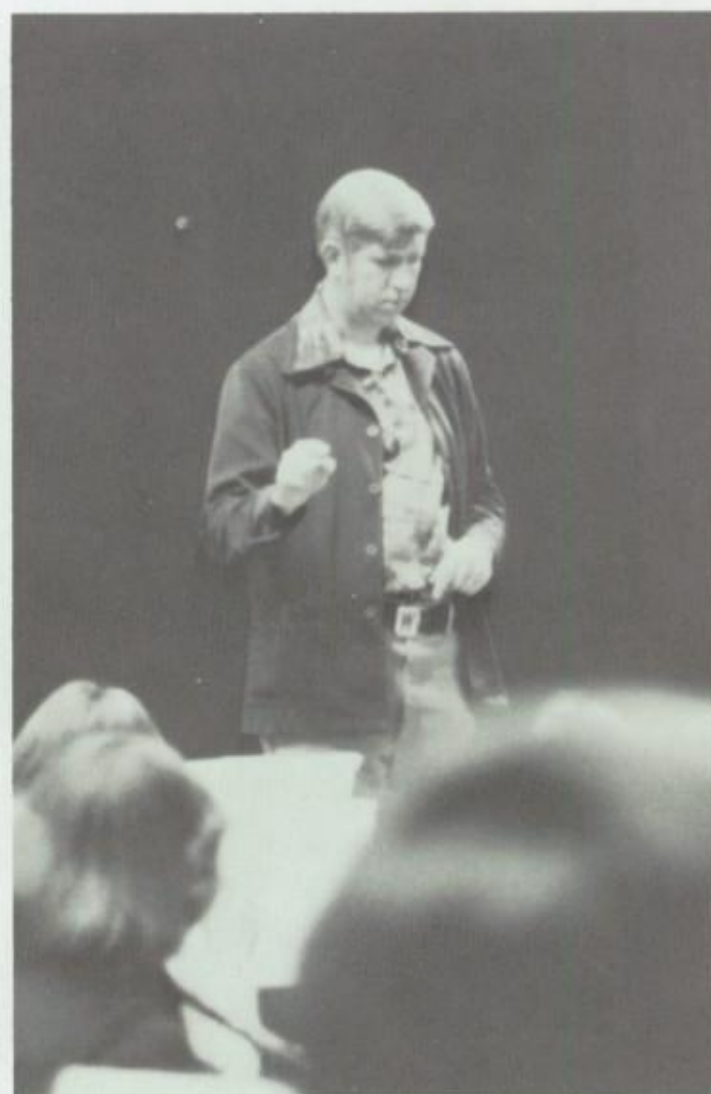

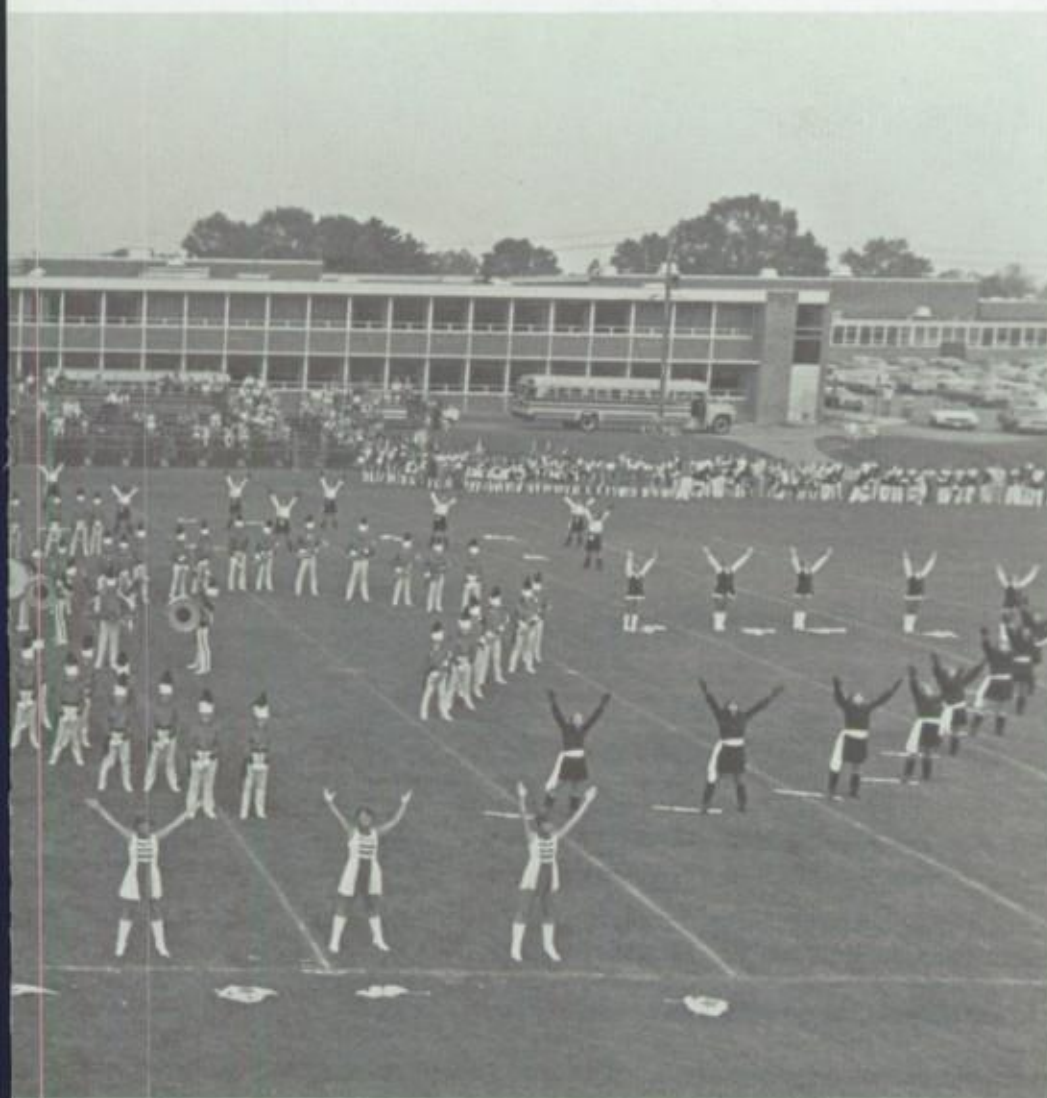

The band also marched off with the first place trophy from the New Holland Fair Parade. In addition to their own parades and performances the band attended all Warwick football games, both home and away, cheering week long trip to Florida. This year's show season. The band season ended with an exciting week long trip to Florida. This years show included "The Triumphal March from Aida", "Song Melody", "Magic Circle", "Ritual Fire Dance", "Ballet Parisienne", and "The Conquerors".

Florida Trip

After finishing another successful season in early November, the Warwick Band began final preparation for their greatest undertaking yet, a trip to Florida with a performance in the famed King Orange Bowl Parade in Miami. After hours of practice and seemingly endless fund-raisers, the band was finally ready for departure on December 26.

After two days of sunny Florida and participation in one parade at Walt Disney World, the band was off to Coral Gables (Thursday) to perform in the Junior Orange Bowl Parade. That night was an early New Year's party at Williamson's Restaurant. On Friday, after a short two hour rehearsal, the band traveled to the Fort Lauderdale Beach to get some sun and to swim in the 76 degree weather. Later that evening, the band was bussed to Miami for the "Best of Bands" field show held in the Orange Bowl Stadium, giving what was later praised as "their best show ever."

Saturday was spent reviewing the parade route and visiting the staging area to look at the floats. Finally, New Year's Eve came and it was back to Miami for the King Orange Bowl Parade. On that warm evening in Miami the band played their musical and marching abilities before the several hundred thousand people lining Biscayne Boulevard. Although somewhat disappointed for not appearing on national television, the band members and directors were very pleased with the parade and all of the performances during the week.

It was hard to leave on such a warm and sunny day, nevertheless, the band members, chaperones, and fans packed up the seven Greyhound busses and returned to snow covered Lititz. Arriving tired but pleased, no one doubted that if given the opportunity, the band would not hesitate to go again.

Donna Beamesderfer: The Warwick singer who went to Regional Chorus.

The 1977-78 Warwick Glee Club, again under the direction of Mrs. June Lantz, had another outstanding year in the world of vocal music. With a total of 135 different students the Glee Club consisted of 93 singers, the Freshman Chorus of 42 warblers and the Ensemble of 29 vocalists. Fifteen Warriors attended Honors Choir at Elizabethtown, 27 sang in County Chorus, seven performed in District Chorus and one appeared in Regional Chorus.

The Glee Club performed three concerts this year which were firsts of their kind. Warwick hosted Lebanon High School in festival of choruses, gave a concert at Cedar Crest High School, and sang for the Evangelical Congregational Church conference. The Glee Club also gave their usual yearly performances such as the Christmas concert, the Christmas television show, the Spring Musical, the Good Friday Concert, and the Concert in the Park (which was held indoors because of the weather).

The Freshman Chorus also sang at the Christmas Concert, the Festival of Choruses, and the Concert in the Park, among others.

Orchestra

The 1977-78 Warwick High School Orchestra was under the direction of Miss Secott. New to Warwick this year, Miss Secott, has led the orchestra through another music-filled school term. The orchestra supplies music for various school activities including the school musical and baccalaureate as well as their own concerts.

Approximately 25 students participated in orchestra this year. As in the past, they have kept the halls of Warwick filled with music.

The Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), has had a very active year. A few of their activities included the preparation of Thanksgiving and Christmas Dinners; and the giving of Easter baskets to needy families. The club sold candy bars and attended both the fall and spring regionals. Officers for the 77-78 school term were President Cathy Burger, Vice President Wendy Siomko, Secretary Chris Mast, Treasurer Cathy Boak, and Reporter, Nancy Coldren.

Student Council

The Student Government under the leadership of President Sheri Ross, Vice-President Julie Stark, Secretary Denise McIntyre, and Treasurer Nancy Gingerich and teacher advisor Mr. Pohner have planned a lot of activities and accomplished much. Some of these annual activities include Homecoming, the Christmas Dance, Spring Fling Weekend, and Student Government Exchanges with other schools and Student Representatives to the local AFS program which supports and plans activities for foreign students here and abroad.

Foreign Language

The foreign language club, under the direction of co-sponsors Mrs. Imes and Mrs. Showers, had a very good year. Providing the leadership for the club were Kurt Smith, president; Connie Royer, vice-president; Margo Smith, secretary; and Joan Snader, treasurer. The students were responsible for such programs as: slides of Mexico, Germany and Austria, Christmas customs in Germany and Mexico, German and Spanish foods, game days, dancing, castles in Germany and Cindy Schierl spoke on her trip to Germany. The club members raised money for their trip to Armands, Lancaster by a candy sale. # National Honor Society

BELOW: Mrs. Meier, Lee Bartholomew: Mrs. Meier is presented with an engraved plate and picture.

The officers of the '77-'78 N.H.S. were Lee Bartholomew, President; Linda Derck, Vice-President; Denise McIntyre, Secretary; and Lori Hill, Treasurer. Mrs. Meier, the advisor, directed the N.H.S. towards improving the relationships among different schools. Students from Warwick High traveled to McCaskey, Conestoga Valley, Hempfield, and others. In an effort to view their own school more realistically, the N.H.S. did more activities than visiting different schools. During the wrestling season, they operated the refreshment stand in the lobby, followed with the members helping sponsor the LARC Bike-a-thon in the spring. Ending a very successful year for the N.H.S., the N.H.S. co-sponsored the Volleyball marathon which took place during the annual Spring Fling.

Varsity Club

This year the Varsity Club was advised by Coach Snyder. The 1977-78 officers of the Varsity Club were Mike Bomberger, Kathy Jo Goble, Missy Habecker, and Ron Martin. They led the Varsity Club through many successful activities and projects. One of these projects was built in the gym lobby. This project, a trophy showcase, was built in memory of Mr. George Male. It contains all the trophies won by the athletes from 1933-1978. Another successful project was the selling of pennants. Members of the Varsity Club sold pennants with sayings like "Buck the Bronks" or "Kick the Mules" for five cents. These were sold the day before a basketball or football game. All of their activities and projects led the Varsity Club to a very successful year.

Fund Raiser

It is evident that student organizations hold a prominent position at Warwick. Since many organizations cannot meet their expenses with the funds given by the school, they must resort to selling in order to make up the difference. There was a wide variety of items sold this year: sub sandwiches, jewelry, pies, book covers, Amway Products, donuts, candles, chicken Bar-B-Q, Christmas trees, spaghetti dinners, candy, teddy bears, pens, beach towels, citrus fruit, and the list goes on and on and on.

We are the Warwick High teachers,
With various different views,
But one thing we have in common,
We keep up with all gossip and news.

We keep informed on the latest romances,
And hear about the trouble makers,
We know if you've been bad or good,
So be good for goodness sakes!

We may be mean at times,
And become hated for awhile,
But all in all we love kids,
So remember us with a smile.

Jim Longenecker

Class Will

I, Russ Willis, will the remnants, trash, junk found in my locker to some poor junior for the year of 1978-79 to do what he feels should be done with it.

I, Stefan Alteruthemyer, will all my old AFS tee-shirts, 35 left-over senior pictures, and my "bloody-Aussie" accent to Eric Blow.

I, Chris Shank, leave a certain bubbly, red-headed cheerleader to her favorite math teacher, Mr. Price.

I, Bill Dussinger, will my "golden toe" to John Knier, in order for him to be a successful kicker on the football team.

I, Jack McCain, will the best of luck to next year's seniors who must take POD with Mr. Daublitz.

I, Terry Shreiner, will my best to the rinky rookies who get Mr. McIntyre for three more years.

I, Lori Hill, will to Brian Murr anything that is green.

We, the MKFC, will to Mr. Kline a year's supply of frogs, 10 Burr Rooney movies, and a new, specially-designed frog tie.

We, The second period Physics class, will to Mr. Lausch a New Collegiate Webster's Dictionary and another pair of yellow polyester pants, and a professional model frisbee.

I, Janine Pilon, will Mr. Weller to Jill Edgerton under the condition that she meets him on the center of the orange at 7:00 AM.

We, John McCall and Scott Bingeman, will five gallons of student-distilled water to Mrs. Pierce.

I, Troy Clair, will my janitorial skills to Frau Showers, the happy homemaker.

I, Lee Bartholomew, will to Amber Lange the Representative-ship of the School Board. I also will Mrs. Kline to all of the juniors.

I, J.B., will my great ability for skiing to the next basketball player who wants to try during basketball season.

I, Audrey Hevener, will my brains to Brad Rollman because he needs them.

I, Gail D. Lowry, will my height to Mrs. Sandhaus so she can reach the top of the blackboard next year.

I, Wendle Miller, will my football talents to future teams.

I, Linda Derck, will my class president, Steve Vigunas, to next year's senior class, so that they might have a more successful year.

I, Jon Gerfen, leave my Fu Man Chu to the classes of '79, '80, '81.

I, Dave Whitcraft, leave some better jokes to Mr. Price.

I, Stan Rettew, leave all my excellent skills and food habits to Warwick undergrads.

I, Janet Gehman, will a tan 71 Opel to Charlie Steffy.

I, Cathy Book, will my terrible twirling talents to anyone who will take them especially Parsy Eby, who is looking forward to the 78-79 Marching Band season.

We, Cathy Book, Cindy Wenger, and Madeline Vieira, the elite of the 1978 Spanish IV class, being of unsound mind and bodies, will our beloved Spanish closer to the unfortunate souls of next year's class so that they may carry on our scholarly tradition.

I, Luanne Mast, will my effective, authoritative closer door knocking talents to Mrs. Ime's next Open Campus student.

I, C.B., will a silver edition Corvette to Steve Gainer who could really use a new car.

I, Sharon Ross, will a nice day to next year's senior class for their class trip so they don't look like drowned rats. I also will them $18.00 to pay for any extra expenses they may have to pay.

I, Rhonda Sheldon, will Mr. Daublitz a year's supply of Navy bumper stickers and bookcovers.

I, Nancy Wooley, will all my oxygen to the science department.

I, Keith Buchbaum, will many happy hours at the typewriter for the Features Section of Teepee Topics to Carol Sonnen.

I, Cheryl Martin, will my Johnson's Baby powder to JoAnn Washchysion's hands so they will be warm and dry throughout her senior year.

I, Ginny Seaman, will my Every Night Shampoo to Mrs. Buchanio along with my curling iron to Mr. Palkovic, and most of all Mr. Price to an unsuspecting junior girl.

I, Jim Longenecker, will my long hours spent at play rehearsals to next year's acting crew. Also, I forfeit my basketball announcing to the next "big mouth" who takes over.

We, Ginny Seaman, Joy Keener, and Chris Hershey, the three airheaded cheerleaders of first period physics, will our oxygen to Mr. Lausch, even though it's not in demand.

I, Cheryl Groves, will my starting position in the 440-yd. relay to any underclassman who would like to run after Missy Clair.

I, Gene Weitzel, leave my unused locker to all the poor imprisoned souls still attending Warwick High.

I, John Brenner, will my slightly used car to a teacher, Mrs. Kline.

I, Kelly Kent, will Mr. Konivitch my smile and laugh for those poor students of his.

I, Jennifer Hampshire, will my flag squad skirt to Sandy Shreiner.

I, Vicki Hutto, hereby will my dancing shoes to the Salvation Army.

I, Donna Beamesderfer, will my soprano voice to June Lantz.

I, Deb Shreiner, will earplugs to any of the juniors who have Mrs. Kline for English next year.

We, The District Chorus Members, will a personal chauffeur to Mrs. Lantz to make it out of Lititz through the snowbanks.

I, Karlee Hostetter, will my typewriter to any junior who takes Advanced Skills and has to type a Career paper.

I, Cindy Sipe, will my goalie position to Gerry Habecker.

I, Greg Fissel, will my triples to Mark Krushinski.

I, Gerald Kenneth Husser III, will my ability to get along with people, my tolerance to other people's mistakes, and my pleasing personality to Dave Husser who will need it in the trying times ahead as student government President.

I, Julie Buckwalter, will my typewriter to Mr. Konevitch, my Ko-Rec-Type to the business department, my flip flops to Dean Fry, and my lunch money to the poor.

I, Missy Habecker, will my one car door that doesn't work to anyone who wants it, or to anyone who is willing to fix it.

I, Sally Heckel, will my perfect attendance to my brother Dave in hopes that he will become a full time student.

I, Sally Heckel, will Dan Neidermyer to Lois Lantz.

I, Martha Gregory, will my fantastic bassoon to Hughie Clinton.

We, Martha Gregory and Irene Frangeskos, will Mr. Barrett two Acme Super Size Erasers for removing translation from Latin I and II books.

I, Irene Frangeskos, will Mr. Lausch a June 1978 copy of National Geographic and a copy of the Greek alphabet with pronunciation guide included.

We, Irene F., Cindy M., and Diane T., will to Mr. Lausch volume I of "Learn to Sketch" book.

We, Cindy W. and Diane T., will to Mrs. Watkins our "Mother Earth" stories.

I, John Hartenstin, will all of my unused, uncashed tickets from Penn National to the class of '79.

I, Sharon Brubaker, will Mr. Rush a lot more 10 o'clocks.

I, Doug Enck, will my mechanical and mathematical ability to Randy Gehman.

I, Chuck Adams, will my bookkeeping abilities to Linda Kline, my curly hair to anyone with straight hair, and my study habits to any junior who needs them.

I, Debbi Keller, will my height to my squirrely little brother, Robert.

SERVING THE WARWICK AREA
FOR OVER A CENTURY

Join the people who've joined the Army.

A lot of young men and women have discovered a good place to invest their time. The Army. What they've found here, they may not have been able to get anywhere else.

Some came to learn a skill. With training in hundreds of different jobs to choose from. Some came for the chance to work in Europe, Korea, Alaska, Panama, Hawaii, or almost anywhere in the U.S.A.

Some came to meet a unique personal challenge. Like the responsibility of doing a good job at a early age. Some came to get a start on their college education. With the Army paying up to 75% of their tuition and fees for approved courses.

And some came to do something positive for their country. Which is a pretty good reason in itself.

Yearbook - 1978 Warrian

Lost pictures, uncorrected copy, misplaced captions, frantic editors, screaming advisers . . . This is a view of the pandemonium which occurs as the yearbook deadlines start rolling in and In and IN! But amid frazzled nerves and late layouts things were accomplished.

Miss Paist offered her services as the new adviser, most of the staff was new and inexperienced, and a new publishing company was employed. With everyone working together the book was improved and many new ideas and techniques were utilized. The staff is anticipating next year's publication in expectation of even more improvement.

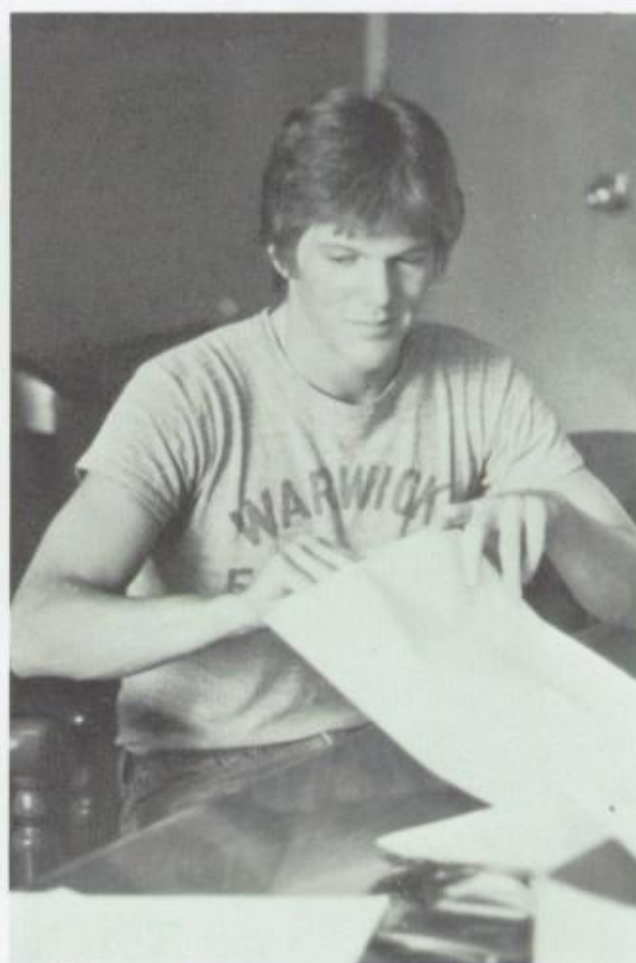

TOP: Janer Gehman, editor checks proportions.
BELOW LEFT: Miss Paist: Yes, you will have your pages turned in on Friday

 RIGHT: Bill Chapell, another sports page finished.
 BELOW: Laurie Kowalick; tap... tap... tap.....
